Letter No.P.300/24-25 dated 25/26th October 1924 from the Deputy Commissioner Bangalore District to the Muzrai Commissioner in Mysore.

"I have the honor to forward herewith the petition No.P.300 dated 21-8-1924 presented by Mr. Karnick Krishnamurthi Rao, Member of the Sri Someswaraswamy temple Renovation Committee praying for the disbursement of the annual cash grant of Rs.200/- sanctioned by the Government in their Order No.1301/Muz.37-23-7 dated 24-3-1924 and to state as follows;

2. There was only a cash tasdik of Rs.64/- a year to the Sri ----- Someswara Swamy temple for weekly puja. At the request of the Renovatic Committee, the.Government permitted them to draw a loan of Rs.25/- per -- month from the funds of Sri Ranganathaswamy temple at Tirumale for a --- period of five years so that daily puja may be conducted (vide Muzrai -- Secretary's letter No.2564/Muz.531-18-12 dated 24-1-1921.)

As the temple was under repairs, daily puja could not be conducte and accordingly no loan was drawn hitherto.

An estimate for Rs.4,000/- for the repairs of the temple was sanc- tioned in the first instance and later on a revision of the same was xx found necessary. Accordingly a revised estimate for Rs.5879/- was sanc- tioned in G.O.No.1508-9/Muz.37-23-9 dated 24-4-1924. The Executive --- Engineer writes that the work is nearing completion. Mr. Karnick ---- Krishnamurthi Rao represents that important repairs to the temple have -- been done so that daily worship can be conducted and that the committee have arranged for Daily puja from the beginning of the current month --- (Aswija) and request that the additional cash gramt of Rs.200/- a year be ordered to be paid immediately.

3. As per Executive Engineer's letter the cost of the entire renovatio of the temple will be Rs.18,970/- more than the sanctioned amount. As it will take some time for all items of work being completely carried out and as there is to hinderance to the daily worship being conducted in the -- temple in the meanwhile, I request you to be so good as to sanction the immediate payment of the aforesaid grant of Rs.200/- with effect from -- 1924-25."
